Wu-Tang Brand and Wallplay celebrate 20 years of Wu-Tang Clan with VIP Opening for "WU HA | 20 20"

On Saturday, November 9, 2013, Wu-Tang Brand and Wallplay celebrated the 20th anniversary of the Wu-Tang Clan with "WU HA | 20 20", an exhibition at Wallplay's hybrid art space featuring the work of artists who, through their own unique vision, have created works inspired by Wu-Tang.

Over 250 VIP attended the event, lining up for entry around Orchard and Delancey Streets at Wallplay's Lower East Side venue, located at 118 Orchard St. Wu-Tang Clan member Capadonna, and family members 60-second Assassin, 9th Prince, Papa Wu, and Shyheim celebrated the opening of "WU HA | 20 20" with curator, Oliver "Power" Grant and co-curator Laura O'Reilly.

Notable celebrities in attendance included Dr. Ruth, Fab 5 Freddy, and Ricky Powell. Artists, members of top-tier media, and VIP guests enjoyed Fabot Blue Ribbon while mingling throughout Wallplay's second-floor and rooftop lounge powered by WUTANG clancloset and live streamed on wuradio.

"WU | HA 20 20" is the first exhibition to launch as part of Wu-Tang Hybrid Arts (WuHa), a yearlong, creative programming initiative celebrating the cross-national influence of the legendary Hip Hop group, Wu-Tang Clan.

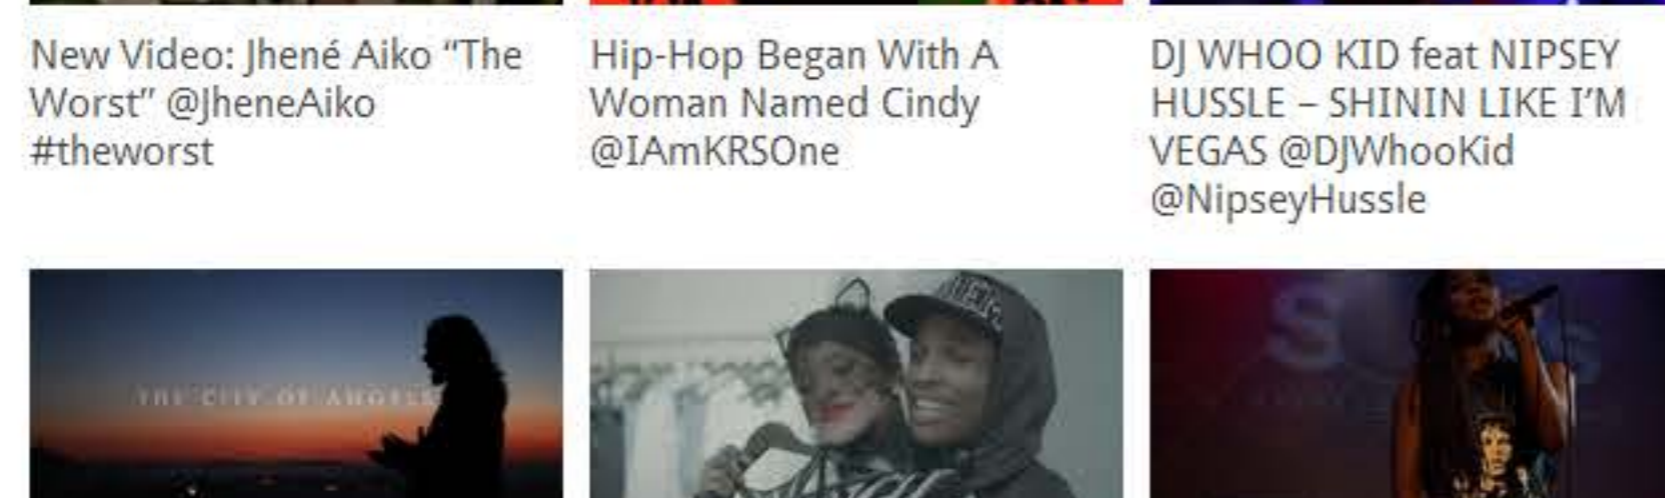

Wu-Tang Hybrid Arts is a collaboration between Wu-Tang Brand and The City Firm that will culminate in September 2014 with an exhibition at the Japanese American National Museum, curated by Oliver "Power" Grant (Wu-Tang Brand), Laura O'Reilly and Jasmine Wah (The City Firm).
