December 2, 2019 (Portland, OR) -- Hey Love announces they are now open for brunch from 10am to 4pm “every damn day”, bringing locals and out-of-towners that all-day-and-into-the-night vibe to Central Eastside. Coffee drinkers, day drinkers, digital nomads, and the executive lunch set are invited to “have a relax” in the verdant, 70s inspired, light-filled space where they can enjoy a menu that cha cha’s from eggs and mimosas to curry bowls and boilermakers.

The warm-weather-inspired brunch menu will feature playful twists on familiar classics, blending the bold sapidness of Southern US and Mexico dishes with the bright, citrusy flavors of Southeast Asia, the Caribbean and the Pacific Islands. Think guava BBQ shrimp and pineapple pork sausage atop a creamy tom kha base of coconut grits or Korean yam noodles and greens adorned with pickled wild mushroom and topped with an optional 6-minute egg.

The menu's tropically-influenced delights are complemented by more dependable brunch classics like perfectly-cooked eggs, fried potatoes seasoned with crunchy salt, and chilaquiles featuring perfectly braised pork chile verde. Many of the dishes are "healthy-ish" with plenty of gluten-free or vegan options, and for those who prefer to start their day on the sweeter side of life, the bubble waffle with seasonal fruit, coconut caramel and coconut whip will not disappoint! Bring on the vacation vibes by pairing your meal with a perfectly balanced cocktail like the Cap'n Ron, a bourbon old fashioned that combines Cap'n Crunch, banana and bitters for the ultimate breakfast beverage.

Hey Love is open from 10am to 2am daily, serving brunch, dinner and late-night menus. For more information, visit www.heylovepdx.com
